(Special to The Evening World.)

SHEEPHEAD BAY, June 22.—Beldame demonstrated her superiority over the other fillies of her age in the Mermaid stakes at Sheephead Bay this afternoon. Those who have been waiting for a meeting between this filly and Capt. Sam Brown's audience were well satisfied after the race that there was only one high-class filly in the three-year-old division and that was Beldame.

She carried the top weight with 125 pounds up, yet she packed the weight like a feather and galloped her field to death. Audience, who was confidently expected to give Beldame a hard run, quit early in the struggle and showed none of the courage that has made her win many races. Little Em, the remarkable price of 50 to 1, was second, while Possession, badly ridden, was third.

Blandy came back to form in the third race and beat Niblick a head in a rattling drive. Mizzen, the favorite in the handicap, ran a very bad race. He finished absolutely last.

Good Thing Won.

Novena was the choice in the opening event, had Shaw up to-day instead of Sine, and it was believed to be a good thing. Novena got a bad break, however, and, though she was closing strong at the end, she failed to get better than third. Mizzen, a good thing from the Zeligier string, went to the front soon after the start and, making all the running, was easily a head and a half from Danesuse, a Vassar girl who was prominent in the stretch and then died away.

Favorite Was Beaten.

Mizzen was the choice in the second race. The talent at the opening of the betting fought shy, but at the end they took him from 11-2 down to 1. Lady Amelia, who had been a good thing, backed. Lady Amelia found the track more to her liking to-day, and she thumped in from third all up was winning easily by three lengths from Lady Uncas, who was second all the way. Grenade was third in the stretch, when he was passed by Montreson, which was third, beaten only half a length by Lady Uncas.

Blandy in a Drive.

Councilman, who was plumped on in the third race, went to the front at the start and opened up a gap of four lengths on the field headed by Niblick and Blandy. When they struck the stretch Councilman suddenly stopped and Blandy and Niblick passed him and in a hard drive to the end Blandy won by a head. Niblick was three lengths in front of Councilman.

Only Gallop for Beldame.

Beldame, a hot favorite in the Mermaid, went to the front at the start and galloped her field to death. Little Em, Audience, Bridge Path and Possession raced head and head to the turn, where Audience and Bridge Path were beaten. Possession then came through, but was not able to reach either of the leaders. Beldame won easily by six lengths from Little Em, who was two lengths in front of Possession.

Odds-on Choice Beaten.

Buttons went to the front soon after the start, made all the running and stalling out a rush by Mercury won by three-quarters of a length. Mercury was an easy second, six lengths in front of Aetia.

Coppelia Won Easily.

Nigrette made the running, followed by Tantalus Cup and Coppelia in the last until they reached the turn. Coppelia then went to the front and drawing away won easily by a length and a half from Tantalus Cup, who beat Flara a length for the place.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Although the Washington Baseball Club has always been Clarke Griffith's hoodoo in the pitching line the wily manager of the Highlanders tried his art against them in the box this afternoon. Hughes was due to pitch, but he caught cold in his arm in St. Louis and his pitching wing is still somewhat stiff and the muscles are a little sore.

Manager Griffith is feeling in fine shape and thought he could overcome his hoodoo here to-day. McGinnis was behind the bat.

First Inning.

Dougherty hit beautifully between Cassidy and Moran. Fultz flied to Stahl. Dougherty out stealing. O'Brien to McCormick. McCormick grounded over Williams' sizzling grounder, over second and threw him out. NO RUNS.

Cassidy opened with a single. Donovan sacrificed. Gansel to Williams. Moran hit deep in center. McGinnis threw to catch Cassidy at third, both runners being safe. Moran stole second. Stahl's weak grounder to right center bound. Williams to Gansel. Cassidy scoring. McCormick's hot grounder got away from Griffith. Moran scoring. Stahl's single bounded over Anderson's head, scoring McCormick. Stahl was brown out at the plate. THREE RUNS.

Second Inning.

Anderson struck out. Gansel grounded out. McCormick to Clarke. McGinnis was also flied by O'Brien's pitching. NO RUNS.

Osteen got Clarke's grounder back of second and retired him. Drill lined to Osteen. O'Brien fanned. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Osteen rapped out. Moran to Clarke. Thoney struck out. Griffith out. Moran to Clarke. NO RUNS.

Cassidy was struck out this time. Donovan out. Williams to Gansel. Moran singled. Moran out stealing. to Williams. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Dougherty singled past O'Brien and Dave Fultz laced a dandy double to left. Williams flied to deep centre. Dougherty scoring and Fultz going to third. Anderson's fly fell between Stahl and Moran for two bases, scoring Fultz. Gansel singled to left, scoring Anderson. O'Brien's wild pitch advanced Gansel into third. McGinnis hit to right center for two bases, scoring Gansel. Osteen flied to Donovan. Little Thoney stung one for three bases over Stahl's head, scoring McGinnis. Griffith hit for two bases, scoring Thoney. Dougherty hit to left for two bases, scoring Griffith. Fultz ended O'Brien's agony, grounding out from McCormick to Clarke. SEVEN RUNS.

Seibach out. Osteen to Gansel. McCormick fanned. Stahl bunted superbly. Clarke flied to Anderson. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Williams flied to Stahl. Anderson singled to Stahl, stole second and continued to third on Drill's bad throw. Donovan singled. Griffith to Gansel. McGinnis singled. Stahl then dropped O'Brien's short fly. Stahl plucked Thoney's low liner. ONE RUN.

Dahlen's low fly oozed through Dougherty's buttered fingers. O'Brien fanned. Cassidy forced drill. Griffith to Williams. Donovan singled. McGinnis nabbed Moran's high grounder, throwing to Gansel. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Griffith struck out. Dougherty singled.

NO TICKET YET, THE CONVENTION HAS ADJOURNED

Plan of Senator Depew, Gov. Odell and Other New Yorkers to Finish the Work To-Night Is Upset, and an Adjournment Is Taken Until 10 o'Clock To-Morrow Morning.

SPEAKER CANNON ELECTED THE PERMANENT CHAIRMAN.

Platform Which Was Carefully Preserved, Canned and Sent On from Washington Is Opened—Resolutions Uphold the Tariff, but Straddle Trust and Reciprocity Questions.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, June 22.—Despite the efforts of Senator Depew and other members of the New York delegation to have the nominations made to-day and to close the convention to-night, an adjournment was taken and the regular programme will be adhered to. President Roosevelt will be nominated to-morrow and Senator Fairbanks will be nominated for Vice-President. Then the convention will adjourn.

CLEVERLY SIDETRACKED.

The early adjournment men were cleverly sidetracked by Administration forces, led by Senator Foraker, through a protracted debate upon the number of representatives to be allowed Hawaii in the Convention. This debate took up so much time that to have carried out the ideas of the men who desired an adjournment to-day would have necessitated a night session and the delegates concluded that it might be as well to remain another day.

The New York movement to have the nominating speeches made this afternoon is probably due to the fear of Frank S. Black that he will deliver his nominating speech to a small crowd to-morrow. Mr. Black, Gov. Odell and Senator Depew all announced themselves as in favor of closing the business of the convention to-day, but the trend of events smothered their ambition.

FIGHT FOR DELAY WON.

The fight for delay came up after the reading of the report of the Committee on Rules, during which many of the delegates left the hall. Then Senator Foraker introduced a resolution providing that Hawaii be given six delegates the same as the other territories. This met with prompt opposition.

The debate that followed was interesting, but all through it delegates and spectators left the hall. Finally an amendment, introduced by Gen. Bingham, providing for two delegates from Hawaii, was adopted by a vote of 497 to 490. It was the first roll call of the Convention and served to whoop things up a bit.

This question settled, the platform was read and unanimously adopted. Then a motion made to adjourn until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning was adopted unanimously.

PLATFORM CAN OPENED.

The can containing the platform was opened this afternoon and the platform was taken out. There was considerable interest in the operation, as the uncanning followed a genial talk by Speaker Cannon, the permanent chairman, but those who looked for a vigorous, plain statement of principles were disappointed.

A "stand-pat" and a "straddle" are the words heard most frequently in connection with the platform. On the reciprocity-protection plank the most work has been done, and the very weak plank it is, indeed. The Trust question is straddled and the straddling has not been done artistically. Altogether it is the kind of a platform that was expected by men who knew where it came from and the motives behind the builders.

MORE LIFE IN THE PROCEEDINGS.

There was more ginger in the proceedings to-day, probably because of the hope in the hearts of the delegates that they would be able to get away from Chicago twenty-four hours before they had anticipated. The cheering was more emphatic and prolonged and the funeral atmosphere that prevailed during yesterday's session was almost dissipated.

When Temporary Chairman Root called the Convention to order at 12:27 o'clock the big Coliseum was comfortably filled. Nearly all of the prominent leaders had been recognized as they entered the hall. Senator Fairbanks was given a rousing reception upon taking his seat with the Indiana delegation.

The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Thomas A. Cox, of the Holy Name Cathedral of Chicago. The prayer was followed by the report of the Committee on Credentials, which was presented by Senator McComas.

LA FOLLETTE SHUT OUT.

Like everything else connected with the Convention the Credential Committee's report followed the programme laid out by President Roosevelt. The announcement that the Spooner delegates from Wisconsin had been seated instead of the regularly elected La Follette delegates was received with cheers. There were more cheers when it was announced that the "Lily Whites" and "Black and Tans" of Louisiana had been given
